Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 1617

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, collagen, water, silicone, silver, no active, crosslinked, no secondary devices, a device/matrix in the reply filed on 8/16/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no serious burden. This is not found persuasive because burden is shown by the ~~classification~~ into entirely different classes, of the groups.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 50-52, 54, 55, 63-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McKnight et al.

McKnight et al teach a collagen film dressing (title) impregnated with finely divided silver (abstract). ^{as l} Glut~~ra~~dehyde is disclosed as a tanning agent (column 4, line 24). Water is specified (column 3, lines 54-55). Compression is disclosed (column 4, line 42).

Claims 62, 65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 62 "polycyanoacrylates" is misspelled. "and copolymers of these" is vague. Which of the previously cited materials? "isobutyl-based" is indefinite.

"isopropyl styrene" and "vinyl pyrrolidone" are monomers rather than polymers. "2-

Art Unit: 1617

Hydroxyethyl methacrylate" and "1, 3-Bis (carboxyl phenoxy) propane" are also monomers rather than polymers. "Poly (amino acids)" is vague because it includes the "Protein materials" of claim 50. Claim 65 doesn't end with a period.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the serial number in the first sentence is incorrect. The patent number should be added.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 61 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 50-52, 54, 55, 62-66 are allowed.

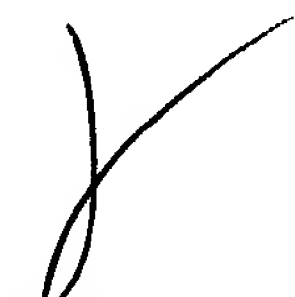

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Edward Webman whose telephone number is (571) 272-0633. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday 9 Am 5 PM.
